

- a) Describe an economy with a modern sector in the city and farming in the villages and show how workers will distribute themselves.
- b) Show the consequences for migration by expansion of the urban modern sector.
- c) Discuss possible consequences for migration of mechanization of the farming sector.
- d) Within the same framework, discuss the consequences of opening up for trade with a world market where modern sector goods are relatively cheap.